

The meeting of coordinators of the Erasmus+ project.

Playing outdoors in local game "Hakun", spending time together, discovering the information about town, watching original shows prepared by students - that's how our whole project started. We invited teachers from partnership schools and introduced them to our region. It was a really great beginning.

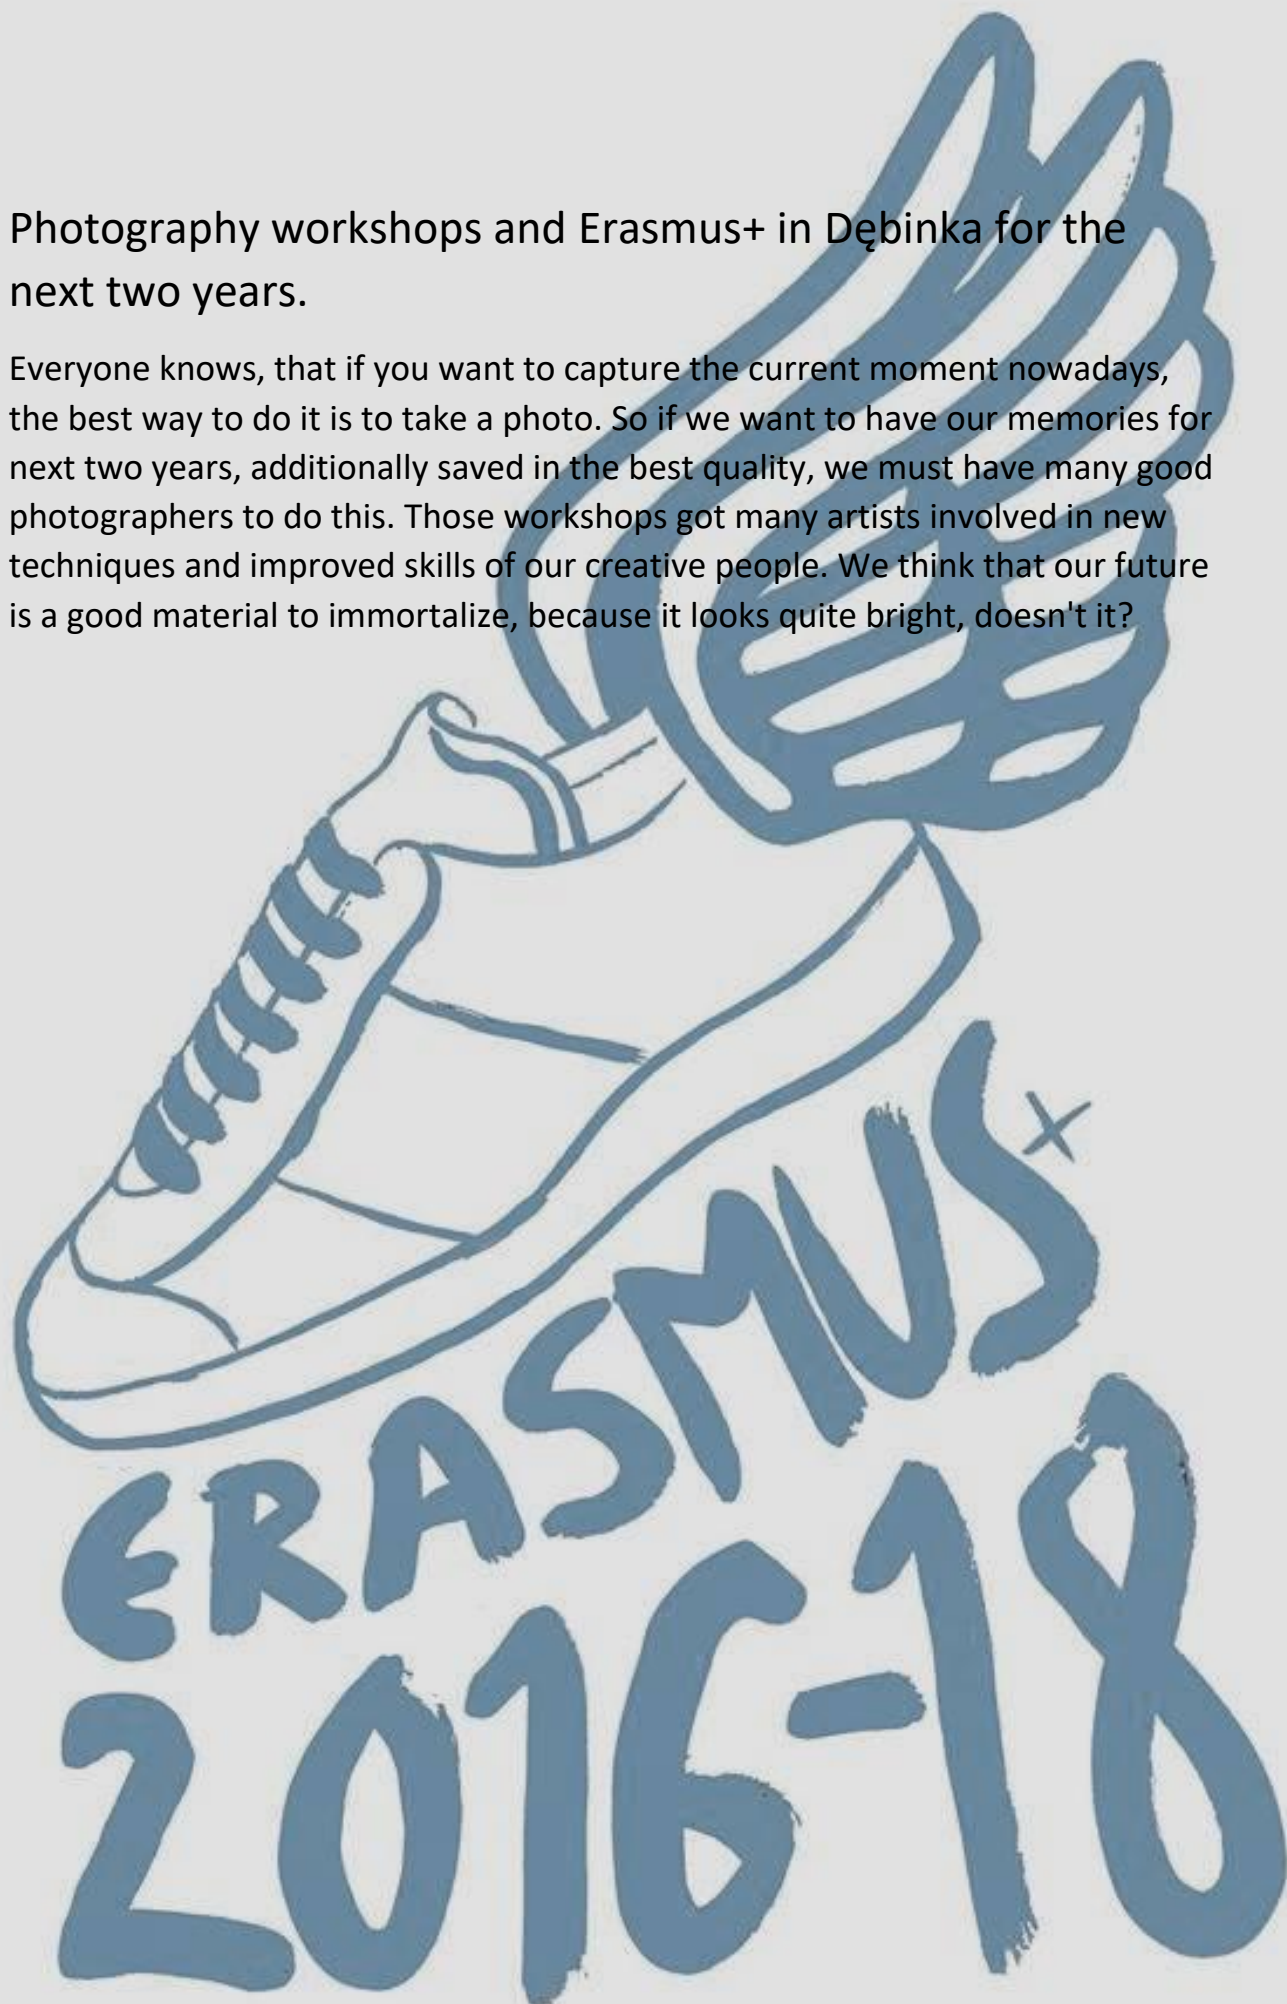

"Vidit didici et vicit" means a week of "Antiquity" with ERASMUS+.

It is good to know something. Especially, if it is connected with your family, relatives or friends! For this reason we decided to organize. "A week of Antiquity" - to go deeper into the history of our friends and us. All students found out about ancient history, philosophy and much more during three days of lectures prepared by our teachers. It was an amazing opportunity to introduce participants into Erasmus+ project.

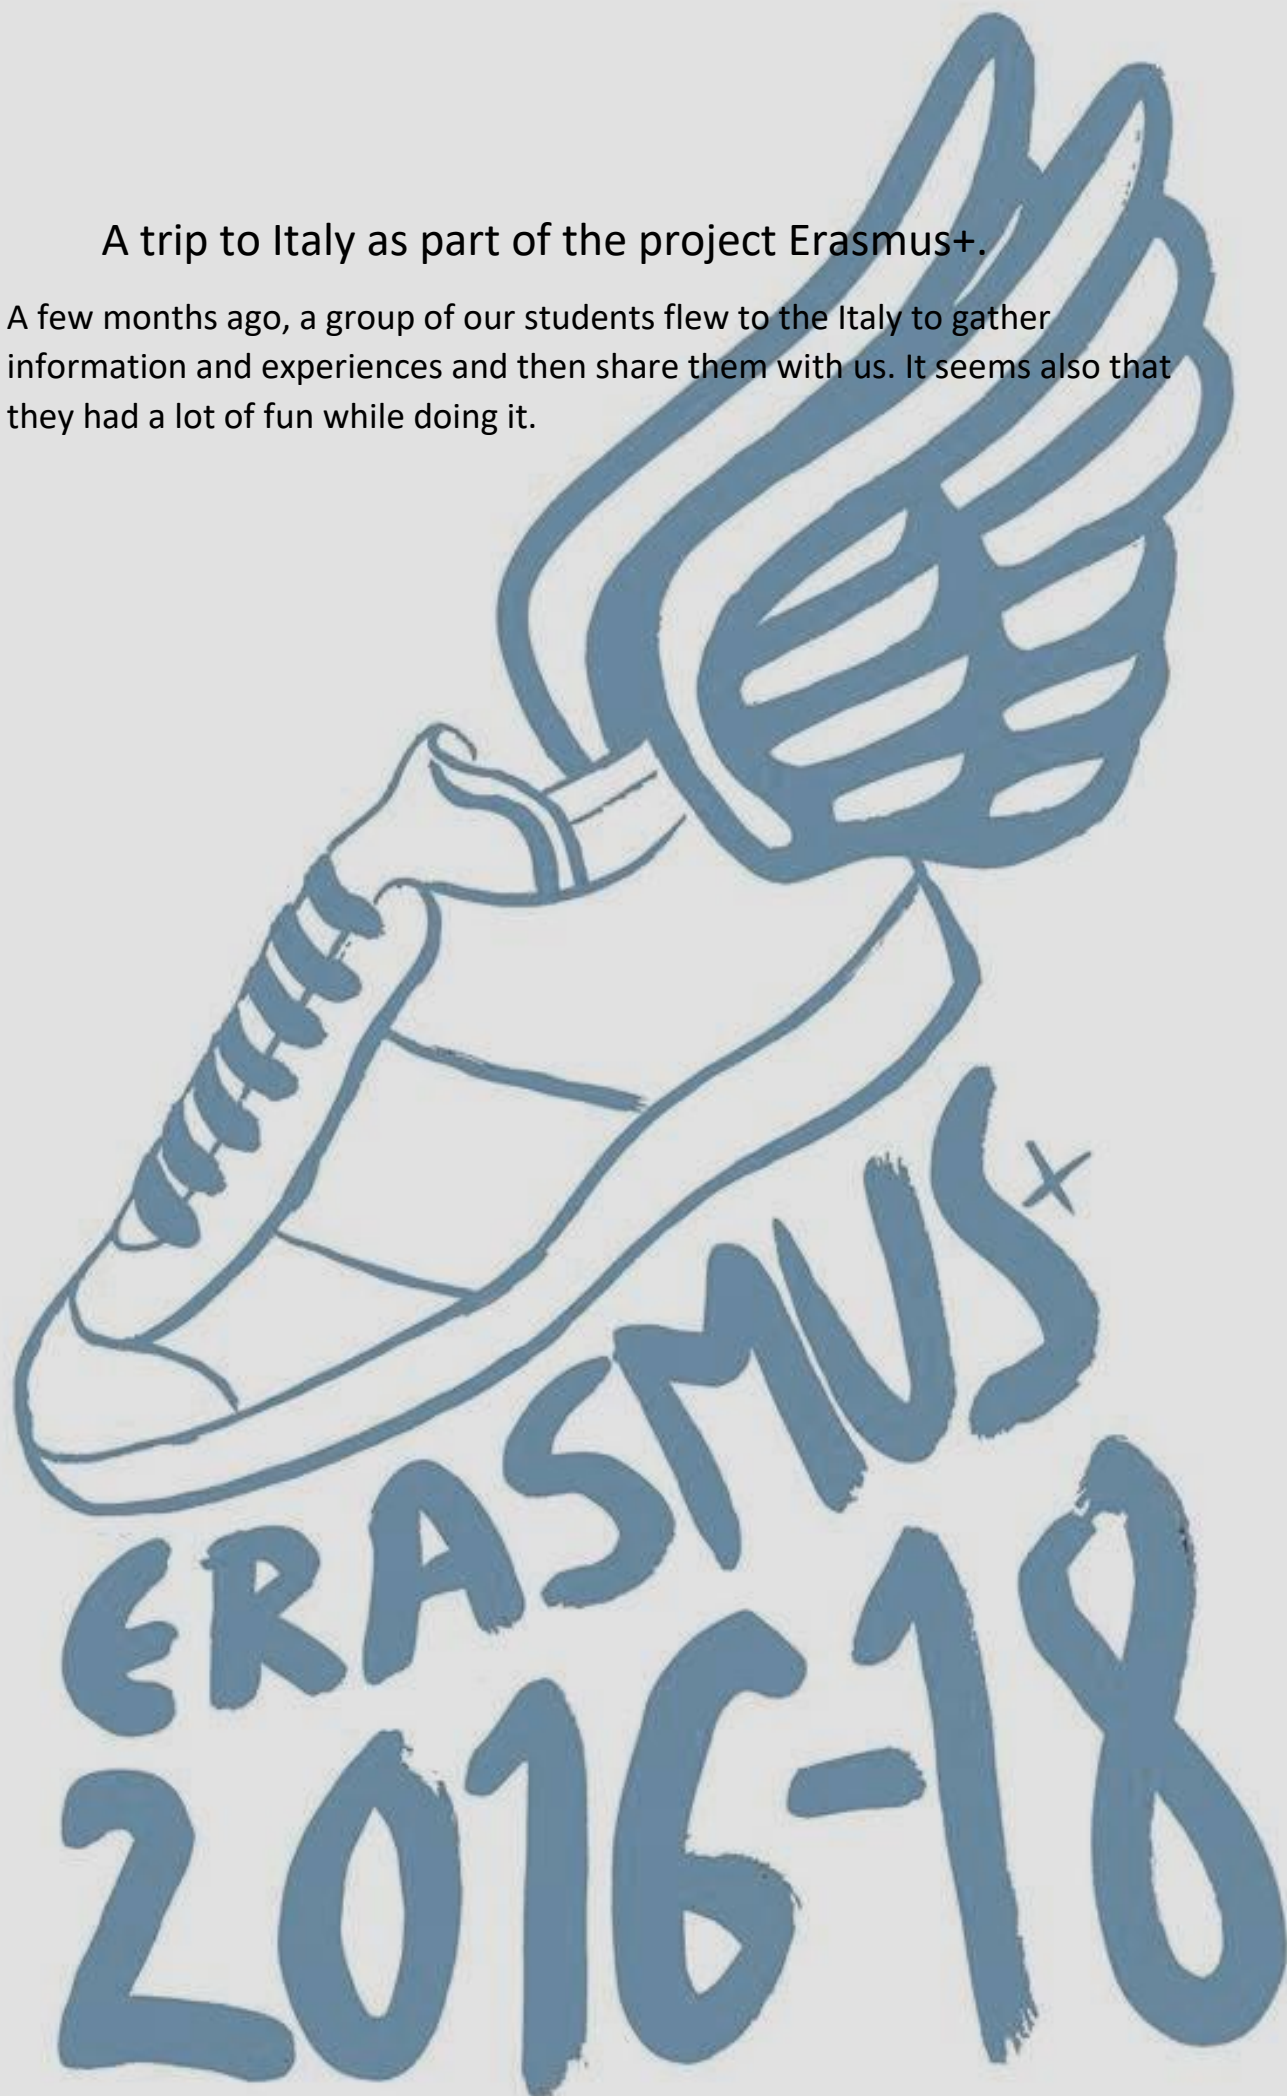

Photography workshops and Erasmus+ in Dębinka for the next two years.

Everyone knows, that if you want to capture the current moment nowadays, the best way to do it is to take a photo. So if we want to have our memories for next two years, additionally saved in the best quality, we must have many good photographers to do this. Those workshops got many artists involved in new techniques and improved skills of our creative people. We think that our future is a good material to immortalize, because it looks quite bright, doesn't it?

A trip to Italy as part of the project Erasmus+.

A few months ago, a group of our students flew to the Italy to gather information and experiences and then share them with us. It seems also that they had a lot of fun while doing it.

Erasmus+ "We are all children of the ancient Greeks and Romans"- Summary of the first phase of the project.

Here we are! The first phase of a project is done! Our students now are prepared to start their journey around the whole new world of an Ancient History. Our history. We already, as a selected group of people, visited partnership schools twice. Trips to Spain and Italy increased our knowledge, but not only. Host families acted their best to provide us with as kind atmosphere, as it was possible. During second phase of project our school will be welcoming friends from west. We are really looking forward to next episode of this beautiful journey...
